“Community Commitment”

Opens on Haldimand County Sign. Under the footage of the sign, we hear the voiceover of the Mayor, Ken Hewitt.

Hewitt: Well, Haldimand's a county that's made up of a large farming industry.

Cut to Close up of Hewitt.

Hewitt: As Mayor, I'm excited, we're excited to be part of the Green Energy projects.

Cut to Farmer in field.

Hewitt: We see opportunities here for our local farmers. We see an economy growing and those revenues coming back to this community is significant

Cut to shot of wind turbine.

Hewitt: The Green Energy projects, both wind and solar, there are a number of those projects coming to this county.

Cut to close up of Hewitt.

Hewitt: It helps us to grow our local economy and provide a stronger and sustainable, vibrant county.

Cut to shot of the back of solar panels with Ontario flag in the background.

Hewitt: As the Province continues in that direction, we have to embrace those opportunities and change with them.

Cut to close up of Hewitt.

Hewitt: The investments that are going on in this industry, I think that this county has a unique opportunity to be a part of that.

Cut to Hewitt on the street pointing.

Hewitt: As a leader, as part of this county, we've made the choice to work with the companies and embrace solar energy, embrace windmill energy.

Cut to Close up of Hewitt.

Hewitt: It's going to create jobs. It's going to increase revenue back to this county and most importantly, as I say, it's going to allow us to build projects that are going to benefit the youth of tomorrow.

SAMSUNG C&T

Cut to streets of Haldimandcounty.

Hewitt: Samsung C&T is a company that's bringing opportunities to this county. At a time when there aren't many opportunities for people. Through Samsung, we're able to see our farmers prosper when crops are changing and not as profitable. We're also seeing, as I say, businesses succeed and gaining opportunities that they wouldn't have otherwise been able to get.

Cut to close up of Hewitt.

Hewitt: So Samsung is a benefit to this county and as a result of Samsung we're able to provide a number of different projects for the communities at large as well as the county as a whole
